FIRE DEPARTMENT HAS A STRENUOUS DAY

SEVERAL SMALL BLAZES CAUSED BY LIVE ELECTRIC WIRES, AS RESULT OF LAST NIGHT'S STORM.

Fire Chief Bartles and his men had quite a strenuous day today, and the department answered to several alarms in different sections of the city. The first alarm came in about 9 o'clock, and was turned in from a fire alarm box on the corner of Railroad avenue and Second street. The department responded very promptly, only to find that it was a false alarm.
At 11:50 o'clock a second alarm was turned in, this time from the corner of Railroad avenue and Edith street.
The fire was at the residence of E. C.
Allen, and was caused by a live electric wire coming in contact with a gas pipe in the ceiling and igniting the gas. The department was on the scene in a few minutes, despite the long run and heavy pull through the blaze. The blaze was extinguished by the use of chemicals and the damage was very slight, amounting to about $15.

Just before the first alarm was turned in this morning the boys discovered that the station was on fire, as the result of a crossed wire. E. C.

German Ambassador Presents State Department With Views of

KAISER ON NEW TRADE TREATY

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—The comptroller of the currency today removed from the service, Bank Examiner R. H. Mattern, on account of his failure to discover the conditions existing in the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny City, Pa. Owen T.
Reeves, Jr., has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Reeves had been assistant bank examiner in New York city.
According to a statement issued by Mr. Ridgely, there was not the slightest intention of any criminal intent on the part of Mattern or any corrupt collusion with the officers of the bank.
He was, however, it is alleged, entirely too credulous in his acceptance of their statements, and careless and inefficient in his examinations.

MARCELLA MATSON PAINFULLY HURT

Pretty little Marcella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Matson, has a bad left eye these days, but word comes from papa's home this afternoon that the injury is healing nicely and the sight has not been impaired. Thursday evening, while the room was dark, Mar-cella picked up a shoe button hook and by some means the hook got caught in the lower lid of the eye.
The little one did not know how to extricate the hook, and commenced pulling down on it. Her screams called Mrs. Matson to her, and when the hook reached up a shoe button hook and blood trickled down the cheek of the latter and the lid of the eye had become badly lacerated. The hook was removed and a physician summoned.
Several stitches were taken and the wound will be healed in a short time.

ROBERT P. HINDMANN DIES AFTER LINGERING ILLNESS

Robert P. Hindmann, a well known resident of central New Mexico, died this morning at St. Joseph's hospital, after a lingering illness. The direct cause of Mr. Hindmann's death was from poisoning contracted while working in cyanide plants, his lungs becoming literally covered with small particles of ore dust.

The deceased was about 40 years of age, and came to New Mexico from Pennsylvania. He was a member of the Albuquerque lodge of Elks, the Knights of Pythias and the Order of Railway Conductors. In the latter degree he carried an insurance policy of $2,000. It is understood that the deceased has relatives residing in Buffalo, N. Y., and Erie, Pa.

The Elks are looking after the funeral arrangements and the remains have been taken in charge by Undertaker A. Borders, who is holding them awaiting instructions from relatives in

BOOKS FOR THE BLIND TO BE PLACED IN ENGLISH LIBRARIES

London, Nov. 4.—A meeting has been called for today to start a movement which will be a great blessing to many unfortunate people, deprived of their eyesight. The supporters of the movement intend to supply books for the blind people to public libraries all through the United Kingdom.
Although millions of books are issued annually to the public from free libraries, no effort has been made heretofore to furnish books which the blind people could read. It is true, that a Blind Man's library has been in existence for some time at Stepney, but it was altogether inadequate to supply the demand for such books.

REVIEW OF THE COTTON MARKET SITUATION BY MILLER & CO.

New York, Nov. 4.—In their weekly review of the cotton situation, Miller & Co. say: "After a week of sudden changes, caused by the effect of varying reports upon a nervous market, the situation has calmed down to a great extent. A new disturbing element has cropped up in the Russian situation. That great empire is now in the throes of a change from the old autocratic system to some new form of government, and the disturbances now general throughout the length and breadth of the land may, it is feared, break out into open revolution at any moment. The interest of the cotton market in such an emergency lies in the effect it may have

RETREAT OF THE CZAR, WHERE LIBERAL MANI- FESTO WAS SIGNED

THE CZAR IS IN RETIREMENT AT PETERHOF. THE ILLUSTRATION SHOWS THE PALACE AND ITS LOCATION.

Peterhof is close to St. Petersburg, on the Bay of Kronstadt, which joins the Gulf of Finland. The czar is in a position where he can keep in touch with affairs at the capital, and he has an easy way to escape, should the revolutionary movement continue to a point where his stay in Russia would endanger his life.

WILL TAKE AUTOMOBILE TRIP THROUGH TURKEY.

Rotterdam, Nov. 4.—R. J. Jefferson started from here on an automobile tour through Europe, which will take him through the heart of the continent to Turkey. The Turkish government does not often give permission for automobile tours through its country, but through the kind offices of Sir Nicholas O'Connor, the British ambassador to Turkey, the desired permission was obtained for Mr. Jefferson.

and Ships Sent to Finland.

EMPIRE GENERALLY QUIETING DOWN TO ITS USUAL LIFE

London, Nov. 4.—The second edition of the London Times, today, which appeared about 1 o'clock this afternoon, publishes the following dispatch from St. Petersburg, dated Nov. 3:

"Finland has won her freedom. A manifesto, embodying all the demands presented by the popular delegates at Helsingfors to Prince John Obolesky, governor general, will be submitted by Secretary of State Luidor, for the imperial signature at Peterhof, tonight.

The keynote of the new Finnish constitution is responsibility, not to the monarch as heretofore, but to the secretary of state and diet.

The presence of Russian warships off Helsingfors is intended to signify that although the emperor grants constitutional freedom, he intends to prevent a severance of the grand duchy from the empire.

SHIPS AND TROOPS HAVE ARRIVED AT HELSINGFORS.

Helsingfors, Finland, Nov. 4.—Three Russian battleships, a cruiser and ten thousand troops have arrived here from Revel. The general strike continues. The situation is threatening on account of the attitude of the socialists. Other classes are disposed to be content with the imperial manifesto.

Copenhagen, Nov. 4.—The foreign office here today received a telegram from the Danish consul at Helsingfors, and the situation is critical.

ST. PETERSBURG BEGINS TO BREATHE FREELY AGAIN.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—Last night, for the first time in ten days, the inhabitants of the capital could discard candles and kerosene and return to electric light. Normal conditions of life are gradually resuming. Street meetings and demonstrations have ceased, and the people are returning to their ordinary occupations. The situation in the provinces is also more reassuring. Agitation and disorder are gradually dying down. The most serious condition is in Finland, where the socialists and revolutionists are

The report has been brought to this city that Pete Pemberton, the ex-cowboy and gambler, who shot and killed Night Marshal W. J. Giles, of Winslow, in the Parlor saloon in that town on last Saturday night, has never been arrested and that the indications are that he never will be. That such proceedings as this is a travesty of justice there can be no doubt, as eye-witnesses to the crime are a unit in saying that Pemberton murdered Giles in cold blood.

EVEN ODESSA SHOWS GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

Odesa, Nov. 4.—Pillaging here has been largely stopped, thanks to the intervention of troops and the local militia, formed largely of students, but the streets are unsafe except for Calve, well known in this country from her former appearance as an opera singer, has given up her oper-

American concert tour this season, under the management of Cort & Cron-berg. She will make her first appearance at Carnegie hall, this afternoon. Walter Damrosch's New York Symphony Orchestra will assist. From here she will start on an extensive American tour, which will take her as far as San Francisco and the City of Mexico.

One interesting feature in connection with her present tour is that Mme. Calve has entered into a rather peculiar contract with her managers.
If at any time she should plead illness as an excuse for not singing, three expert physicians shall examine her, and, if they should decide that she is able, she must decide that her

LEO BACA DISAPPEARS VERY MYSTERIOUSLY

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baca, of 909 South Third street, are grief stricken because of the loss of their son Leo, who mysteriously disappeared last night. They appealed to the police for aid in the search for him, but at 2 o'clock this afternoon the boy had not been found.

Leo Baca is about 15 years of age, and has been employed for more than a year as bundle carrier at the Economist dry goods store. He was last seen about 6 o'clock near the postoffice, as far as the police are aware.
The fact that the boy was of exceptionally good habits, and has never left home without first telling where he was going, leads his parents to believe that some misfortune has befallen him.

the prisoner intimated that bondsmen would be secured during the day.
Through the confession of Louis authorities received evidence which in their opinion warranted the arrest of McLeod.
